Donna Heaton was truly born for this industry and was a respected leader in this field with a distinguished career that spanned more than three decades. Donna served as President for the first two years the Apartment Association of Greater Knoxville existed, from 1993 to 1995. She proved to be key in the ongoing success of the Association. Her name became synonymous with excellence in the multi-family world. She mentored not just those under her direction, but any and all who asked for her help, even if they were considered her "competition".
